

National Picnic Week Ideas

An average picnic costs £26*. Did you know that for that amount, FareShare can provide 104 meals for people in need? Enjoy National Picnic Week with a themed fundraiser for FareShare and help us feed more people.

At work? Have an office picnic

Break out the blanket and hamper in the boardroom (or the nearest park). Charge £2 to join the picnic and £3 if you can't make it.

World Cup picnic

Get your friends or colleagues to pick a country and bring food from that nation. Turn it into a sweepstakes: £2 per team, with half going to FareShare, and half for prizes for winning teams.

Have a picnic bake off

Who among your friends makes the best scotch eggs? Does Marketing make a better quiche than HR? Turn it into a bake sale to raise funds.

Organise a themed picnic

Invite your friends or colleagues to join a themed picnic with a donation of £2. Strawberries and cream theme for Wimbledon, or maybe Eggs, Rugs and Rockin' Rolls – can you make a picnic rock'n'roll?

Little ones will love a Teddy Bears picnic

Winnie the Pooh likes honey, Paddington is fond of marmalade sandwiches and Yogi Bear loves all picnics. Have a picnic with your favourite bear! Ask all parents to donate.

Plastic free picnic

Can you challenge your guests to use sustainable and reusable materials only? Collect donations – and plastic penalties!

Share your picnic and spread photos on social with #FareShareAlfresco & #HamperOfTheDay
