About FareShare

FareShare is the UK's national network of charitable food redistributors, made up of 17 independent organisations. Together, we take good quality surplus food from right across the food industry and get it to almost 11,000 frontline charities and community groups. We support 10,962 local charities and community groups. Over the past year 24,074 tonnes of food were redistributed by FareShare Regional Centres and FareShare Go nationwide, our charity network serves 933,578 people every week.

Hunger is a growing issue in the UK and while there is surplus food that is otherwise going to waste, we believe that this food should be used to feed people first.

FareShare's Strategy & Vision

Vision: We have the vision of a UK where “No good food goes to waste”.

Mission: To use surplus, fit for consumption, food to feed those who are vulnerable in the UK by supporting front line charitable organisations that tackle the cause and not just the symptoms of food poverty.

Our Purpose: We are doers. We are a community. We change lives.

Our Values: Passion - for our cause and the challenge that lies ahead

Ambition - to go the extra mile and drive the change that must happen

Respect - for ourselves, each other, our volunteers, our partners and our beneficiaries

Collaboration - it's only by working with others that we can be stronger

Focus - on providing the best service possible so that we deliver and achieve the most for our clients/customers.

Project Background

Volunteers are the life blood of FareShare, without them food which is received from the UK's food industry, would not make its way to the 10,962 charities and community groups we support. We aspire to grow our number of volunteers to help us deliver our mission and that of our member charities and community groups, whilst helping to ensure the ongoing sustainability of FareShare's 22 Regional Centres across the UK.

FareShare aims to support volunteers and through delivering high quality volunteering opportunities ensure volunteers enjoy and benefit from their time with us. Many volunteers become involved with FareShare to gain skills and experience to help them secure work. Many FareShare Regional Centres have created specific employability programmes to support those volunteers. These programmes range from ad-hoc support providing limited advice and guidance to specialist long-term support including mentoring, coaching and access to various skills training and multiple qualifications.

FareShare's Employability Project in Merseyside

FareShare is launching an 18 month pilot employability project based at our regional centre in Liverpool. This project will work with long-term unemployed people to provide the support they need to successfully secure and sustain meaningful employment. The project will work with 90 Trainees over an 18 month period. The project will provide an integrated, person-centred employment service for the long-term unemployed in Liverpool. The project has been designed based upon the best practise currently within and external to the FareShare Network there are 3 core project elements of Employment Support, Work Experience & Training and Wellbeing.

In the Employment Support element Trainees will receive a tailored programme of 1-2-1 and group support. Activities will include coaching Trainees in important work skills and supporting them through the processes of searching for, securing and sustaining employment, providing up to 26 weeks of support to sustain outcomes. Each Trainee will be taken through an assessment process to identify what is required to support them to secure sustainable employment. Individual development plans will be created for each Trainee. This element will include developing links to employers and educational establishments to source employment and progression opportunities for Trainees and developing links with the JC+ and other partners.

In the Work Experience & Training element Trainees will participate in the day to day operation of the FareShare Merseyside warehouse. Activities will include site induction, training in manual handling as well as coaching Trainees in other important vocational skills such as picking, packing, team work and cleaning to ensure they become competent in the various aspects of warehousing work. Support will be provided throughout the Trainees 26 week programme. Each Trainee will be taken through an assessment process to identify their previous work experience and training and what is required to support them. Individual development plans will be created for each Trainee.

The Wellbeing element will involve creating and managing partnerships with other local community assets to bring wellbeing services into the regional centre or encourage, support and enable Trainees to access additional wellbeing support in the community. Each Trainee will have a limited personal development budget to engage with other services.

Trainees will be engaged utilising strength and asset based approaches and the aims of the project encompass improving Trainee wellbeing and personal development in addition to skills training and the overarching aim of enabling Trainees to secure employment.

This pilot project has been commissioned to demonstrate a new way of delivering high quality Employability provision and if successful will set the standard and operating model of further new Employability Projects across the FareShare Network.

The role

The Warehouse Trainer role will form part of a project team with the FareShare Employment Coach. The project team will be responsible to deliver all aspects of the project. The Warehouse Trainer will deliver the Warehouse & Training element and also, jointly with the Employment Coach, deliver the Wellbeing element of the project.
